

Curious about Cohousing?

Are you interested in:

- Living lightly on the earth.
- Knowing and working cooperatively with your neighbors.
- Reducing your household chores (cooking, cleaning, yardwork).
- Sharing resources (woodshop, bikes, art space, kids play area).

If you're looking for an alternative to how you live, attend this informational session on cohousing – community oriented, cooperatively managed, but independently owned housing.
